

ECA Community Relations Projects

1972 – Schollenberger Park in Petaluma-Rough Grading - $70,000

1997 - Steele Lane School Play Field – $99,000

1998 - Patrick Scott Pathway - $80,000

1998 – Earl Baum Parking Lot - $82,000

2002 – Earl Baum Center Garage - $15,000

2003 - Jack London School Parking Lot - $130,000

2005 - Kid Street Parking Lot - $125,000

2006 - Home Aid/Aston Ave Shelter Project - $210,000

2006 – Kids Street Ball Wall - $18,000

2006 - Forestville Youth Park parking lot - $25,000

2007 – Valley of the Moon Teen Center - $95,000

2008 – Luther Burbank Farm Parking Lot - $40,000

2010 – Tamayo House - $10,000

2011 - Santa Rosa Boys and Girls Club - $25,000

2011 – Petaluma Grant School Track Project - $100,000

ECA's membership will have given $1,054,000 worth of labor, materials and equipment to these community projects by the end of 2011! This is separate from what our individual firms have done on their own over the years. It is estimated that another $4,000,000 worth of charitable donations have been raised and delivered by ECA members over the history of the ECA.

ECA-WE ARE THE COMMUNITY